Equis Promotes Tokyo-based Tzer-Han Lim to Partner

December 3, 2018 – Equis Group (Equis), Asia’s largest independent infrastructure private equity manager, has promoted Tzer-Han Lim to Partner.

Since joining Equis in 2012 as a Vice-President, Mr. Lim has been involved in the firm’s expansion and investments in the solar, wind, bioenergy and telecommunications sectors. Mr. Lim has over 13 years of infrastructure investment and private equity experience.

Prior to joining Equis, Mr. Lim served as an Associate at CCMP Capital Asia, a pan-Asian private equity fund, where he was responsible for investments in Australia and New Zealand, and as an Executive in the investment banking division at Macquarie Group.

Mr. Lim holds a Bachelor of Commerce (First Class Honours) from the University of Melbourne and a Master of Business Administration from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. He is also a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries Australia.
